

The Northway Book!

*"Camp Northway, Algonquin Park, Canada, Founded 1906
The First One Hundred Years"*
(Published summer 2006, 264 pages)

CHAPTER ONE contains accounts of the five Northway centennial events held throughout 2005.

CHAPTER TWO is a collection of Northway stories, illustrating the tremendous impact of camp on the lives of so many. This chapter also includes a variety of items taken from the Northway archives.

CHAPTER THREE consists of the recollections of the three Directors of Northway, Fannie L. Case, Anne Russe Prewitt and Brookes Prewitt, who have guided this great camp over a hundred-year period.

The APPENDIX is drawn from the Northway brochures and lists most former campers and staff year by year.

APPEARING randomly throughout the book are selections from early Northway brochures along with quotes from former campers.

The cost is:

$25.00 plus $1.50 tax and $2.50 shipping for a total of $29.00 per copy
